"NO NORTH, NO SOUTH, NO EAST, NO WEST UNDER THIS CONSTITUTION; BUT A SACRED MAINTENANCE OF THE COMMON BOND AND TRUE DEVOTION TO THE COMMON BROTHERHOOD."—FRANKLIN PIERCE.

FRIDAY, : : : : OCTOBER 8, 1852.

EVERY statesman must see that we have no continental policy; we do not mean a policy in relation to Europe, but in relation to our own continent. Long ago it was announced, with the general concurrence of public sentiment, that further colonization on this continent, by any European power, could not be allowed. The rights already required would be respected, but no further encroachments by foreign powers would be tolerated. None profess to abandon this policy; but our action of late is a virtual abandonment of it. This whig administration has been fixing up treaties with England about the right of way through Central America, and inviting entangling alliances with all nations upon the same subject. In this they have also disregarded another principle held sacred by the people of this country; they have shown a practical contempt for the independence and sovereign rights of the Central American States. If England and the United States should make a treaty about the right of way through France, it would be held a gross insult, requiring an apology.

What right then, have we to be fixing up treaties with England about the right of way through Nicaragua, without a suggestion from that State? Shall we insult her? She is a feeble Republic, struggling for existence, and has no power to resent indignities. Besides, we as well allow England to colonize a part of Central America, as to allow her by treaty to obtain all the substantial advantages a colony would give her? All such overtures and agreements with any European nation, is a direct sanction of their interference with the arrangements of this continent.

In the controversy with England and France, Mr. Crittenden denounced strongly to their sending naval forces to protect Cuba from invasion by the United States. The French Minister announced that his government had determined that Cuba should not fall into the hands of any other power.

This was tacitly acquiesced in by our government; and a practical claim to the right to search American vessels almost within our own waters was asserted, and not denied.

We say this tame submission to encroachments must be stopped.

The recent news from Cuba shows that the struggle has begun there. The gallant courage of the people of Cuba, without a suggestion from my countrymen, and you are my countrymen, "I am in the hands of the whigs," &c., &c. Oh! no, Scott is not encroaching—not he!

17 The democratic papers complain that Gen. Scott is encroaching through the country, though they know that he is doing nothing of the kind.—Local Journal.

Ah! indeed. Traveling through Louisville with a Log Cabin and Coon banner in the procession, is just no encroaching at all in the estimation of our neighbors. "My countrymen, I am your countryman, and you are my countrymen," "I am in the hands of the whigs," &c., &c. Oh! no, Scott is not encroaching—not he!

17 Thanks to one of the fair ladies of Louisville for that splendid apple; sixteen inches in circumference, and weighing thirty-two ounces. We highly appreciate this present for its own sake, and for the sake of the donor.

A WHIG PROPHECY.—The following is from Brown's Knoxville (Tenn.) Whig:

"Will the South, can she, eugh! she, swallow Seward's candidate, and her higher law principles? We predict, and we are not a prophet, that in November next every state will go on. The blood of those stigmatized as robbers and pirates, the sufferings of patriots in chains and dungeons, will yet be expiated."

Dark and bloody is the road to freedom. It is for this country to say how long it shall be. Spain can only now retain Cuba by the darkest and bloodiest crimes, by systematic butchery of the noblest of the Island; and shall we look on year after year, silent spectators of the revolting progress?

This country can make no excuse before God and man for such a policy. The great controlling power of this continent cannot stand by and witness shocking outrages upon justice and humanity perpetrated through a succession of years with impunity.

Whig editors are always shocked these times at the mention of Cuba. Let them look into a great a panic who have a fancy for. Democracy has had its day in Cuba. Liberty has at present a dark and gloomy prospect in the Island, but a brighter day will dawn. The work of the whigs will go on. The blood of those stigmatized as robbers and pirates, the sufferings of patriots in chains and dungeons, will yet be expiated.

They are not in vain.

It is well known that a combination of powers in Europe are engaged to aid Spain in her atrocious policy. This ought not to be a matter of indifference to this country. It is an interference with the western world that is both impudent and insulting, the more so as it arises from jealousy of the U. S. States. These powers didn't Spain in South America and Mexico. There is a reason for their action toward Cuba. It is not friendship to Spain. It is hostility to the United States, and an impudent interference with what don't concern them. The spirit of this country will not abide it. So the whigs had as well got scared now in advance, at the shadow of coming events.

17 The whigs are scribbling about slanders upon Gen. Scott; but we have not seen one yet in democratic papers, unless that extract purporting to be from his orders to his recruiting officers, proves to be one. The Scotttites, however, have published and circulated by millions, one of the most shameful documents that ever was penned; we mean the picture book. It ascribes to Scott heroic deeds he never performed; ascribes to him the deeds of others with which he had nothing to do. It is a monstrous robbery of the living and the dead, stripping them of the reputation they earned by patriotic and heroic service, and ascribing their merits to Scott, to whom they don't belong.

Now, suppose posterity should surmise that Gen. Scott was himself the author of this picture book, or that he knew what was in it, and still connived at its circulation; or that he, knowing its contents, kept silent and saw himself decked out in the herd earned laurels of others, what will they think of him?

The victories of a hundred Caesars would not redeem a man from such a suspicion, if it should prove well founded. No character could survive the scorn that would be casted out for such an action as is liable to attach to Scott on account of this document.

17 Every step of Gen. Scott is visible to the world; and Gen. Pierce can generally go where he pleases without his movements being known to say except those who actually see him.—Local Journal.

The reason of this, is, neighbor, that Scott is on an electioneering tour, seeking the votes of naturalized citizens, falling in love with the "breeze," while Pierce remains at home relying upon the intelligence of a patriotic people,

(From the Nashville Union.)

Gen. Scott not Pledged to the Compromises as a Final Adjustment.

How well he did his late speech, brings out some interesting documents, and the fact that "Gen. Scott received a copy of the whig Platform, and said that he accepted the nomination upon that platform, THE WORD 'FINAL' WAS NOT IN IT."

Mr. POLK said:

"Mr. Chairman: As it is not my purpose to enter into any discussion of the political party of which I am a member, I will advise him to attend lectures one more winter. He says there is only one whig in the shop, and he is a Scott whig. I grant it. A Word to Advertisers.—All the advertisements appearing in the Daily Democrat are transferred to our Evening Edition, and receive a gratuitous use in it. Thus each patron of the morning paper has the advantage of an evening circulation to a distinct class of readers free of charge.

River News.

The fleet Reindeer leaves Paducah for New Orleans on Sunday. The Gen. Pike, which leaves for St. Louis to-day, will pass passengers bound for New Orleans to the Reindeer.

The chimers of the new steamer Cremona were put up yesterday. She leaves for the south to-morrow.

The light draught steamer Friendship leaves for Cairo to-day.

The river continues to recede slowly, with about 2 feet 10 inches water in the canal, and 31 feet on Port-land bar. On Rising Sun bar there were 4 feet water yesterday.

The mail boats are detained several hours nearly every trip, by the dense fog which commences in the river about 12 o'clock at night.

The new steamer Messenger, now lying at the lower city wharf, is rapidly approaching to completion.

The steamer Odd Fellow was sold yesterday at public auction for $7,000.

A barge a ton of the Asia was run aground and sunk near the mouth of Fever river a few days since. Loss $1,000 or $500.

Both the New Albany ferry boats were aground yesterday morning.

Bowditch streets are cleared at much less expense than those paved with limestone.

The butchers of Cincinnati had a grand parade yesterday.

The Agricultural Fair at Eminence closes to-day.

Two locomotives for the Jeffersonville and Columbus railroad will arrive in a few days.

There has not been a fire or false alarm for nearly a month. What is the matter?

The Lady Pike and the Lady Franklin are the regular Cincinnati and Louisville mail-boats.

Messrs. C. C. Green & Co., have a large sale of household and kitchen furniture this morning. Look out for bargains.

Mercantile business is always dull at this time of the year, in consequence of the near approach of the fall elections.

A young gentleman named Myers, a resident of this city, was robbed of $25 on the 21st, at Cincinnati, on Tuesday.

De Castro, the Spaniard arrested on a charge of robbing McKee at the Weddell House, in Cleveland, of $48,000, has been released.

Miss Eliza Logan is playing a very successful engagement at the National theatre, Cincinnati.

A man named Shadrach Quarles was killed in a fight with a man named Wm. Bradley, at Cincinnati, on Tuesday.

There is to be a free-soil convention at Indianapolis, on the 21st inst. Hon. John P. Hale will be the principal speaker.

More than $3,000,000 are invested in cities in Pittsburgh. The stock will pay well some future day.

The Kentucky Riflemen start for Cincinnati on Sunday next, and not Monday, as we stated yesterday.

The inventor of the telegraph fire alarm clock is in Cincinnati, with a view of having its invention tested.

Arrangements are being made at Indianapolis for a great agricultural fair on the 21st of October.

The young men of Louisville will give a ball at Odd Fellow's Hall, on Thursday, Oct. 14th, inst. For particulars, see advertisement.

We call the attention of democrats to the fact that Nathaniel Hawthorne has written the life of Genl. Pierce, which may be procured of Morton & Griswold, in book form.

It is now stated as positively certain that the Baltimore and Ohio railroad will be completed to Wheeling by the month of January next.

—Last night about 10 o'clock the Tobacco Factory of Stephen Muisseman, on the alley between Market and Jefferson, and Tenth and Eleventh streets was destroyed by fire, loss about $1,000.

John McNorton, a notorious thief, was baited out of the workhouse, on Wednesday, by George Heise or Kice. This is the same individual who obtained the release of Bert Mackay and Tom Collins.

On Friday morning last, while J. M. Brown, Merchant of Batavia, was on his death bed, and friends around to part with him on the verge of eternity, his store was broken open, and his safe robbed of $3,000 of his own money and $2,000 owned by a friend.

The largest merchant ship in the world is being built at East Boston. She will be 350 feet long, have 50 feet breadth of beam, 28 feet depth of hold, with three decks, and will register 3,000 tons.

John McNorton, a notorious thief, was baited out of the workhouse, on Wednesday, by George Heise or Kice. This is the same individual who obtained the release of Bert Mackay and Tom Collins.

On Friday morning last, while J. M. Brown, Merchant of Batavia, was on his death bed, and friends around to part with him on the verge of eternity, his store was broken open, and his safe robbed of $3,000 of his own money and $2,000 owned by a friend.

The Cincinnati citizen says that during the month of September eight hundred and fifty foreigners in that city have sworn off their allegiance to their native land, and become citizens of the United States. The number have actually become voters, and are nearly all Democrats. On Tuesday, seventy-four persons received their final papers.

NEW ALBANY AND MICHIGAN RAILROAD.—This company advertise for twenty-five hundred laborers to work upon the road near Bedford. We understand that the bridge over White river will be finished ready for the cars to pass over in about two weeks; but there is an immense amount of work still to be done between the river and Bedford. The cars will not run to the latter place before the first of January.

The democracy of the 8th ward had a very large and enthusiastic meeting on Wednesday night, at their club room, on Main street, between Eleventh and Twelfth. Mr. Dobbins addressed the meeting in a very able manner; and when he concluded, Mr. A. E. Drake was called for, and responded to the call in a speech of about an hour's length, which was loudly applauded. Mr. John H. Laird being called for, came forward, and made a brief but very eloquent speech, which was well received. I. We hope Mr. Laird will favor the democracy with a speech again, as he is a talented and popular speaker. The democracy are doing their duty in the Eleventh ward.

(For the Louisville Democrat.)
The Democrats of the Seventh Congressional District As we must soon select a candidate to represent this district, to be supported by the democratic party, we beg leave to present the name of Dr. J. Russell Butler for your consideration. Dr. Butler is a native of this district, and descended from an ancestry that is most honorably identified with the civil and military history of Kentucky, from its earliest settlement to the present day. He is a gentleman of high character, and in all respects of personal merit, eminently creditable to his honored lineage. We can heartily recommend him in all respects worthy of the zealous support of the democrats of the district.

MANY DEMOCRATS,

We received yesterday a corn-stalk from Fordham, Ind., 15 feet long, with a fine ear of corn on it. We had therefore the pleasure of handling the largest apple, and the longest specimen of a corn crop in the west.

Boots, Shoes, &c.

Mr. B. Prenger has a fine assortment of boots and buggies, at his store on 4th street, between Main and Market. The attention of city and country readers, especially, is referred to this house. Every description of shoes, boots, &c., may be found at this old established stand.

Odd Fellow's Hall.

There will be an exhibition at Odd Fellow's Hall on Saturday the 9th inst., May 1. Eroy's grand Panorama of Ireland. Many a son of "old Ireland," and hundreds who have read the story of her wrongs, will doubtless avail themselves of this opportunity of witnessing a panoramic view of her most striking incidents and noted places.

The Irving House.

This house has changed hands. The Messrs. Howards have parted with all of their interest in the Hotel to Messrs. Doolittle & Burroughs. H. Doolittle of Cincinnati, and Wm. H. Burroughs of Philadelphia. We understand Mr. Doolittle furnished the larger part of the capital and that the house to be principally under the administration of Mr. Burroughs, who is to be the active partner, and has been a well known and very popular landlord in Philadelphia.

NOTICE.—The committee of arrangements who had the celebration of the 4th of July last, are requested to meet at the Court House, on Saturday evening next at 7 o'clock, to make such arrangements as to pay off the expenses of said celebration. It is hoped all the members of that committee will come as the bill should be paid off. Members of the committee who have funds in their hands not handed over, are requested to hand the same over to B. Musselman, Treasurer.

THE butchers of Cincinnati had a grand parade yesterday.

THE Agricultural Fair at Eminence closes to-day.

Cravat Portraits.

We were delighted yesterday in witnessing several beautiful Cravat portraits at the rooms of Mr. H. G. Wilson, at the Louisville Hotel.

This style of painting is said to be lasting as the best oil painting, and we decided prefer it to the old process. Mr. W. is an artist of no ordinary skill—his likenesses are perfect, giving every instant and the full expression of every feature. He requires but short sittings—say ten or twelve minutes for outline sketches.

These portraits much resemble the rich French engravings often seen in the show windows of some of the merchants of Louisville, and are worthy the inspection of all. Enquire for room 141, at the Louisville Hotel.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Oct. 7, 1852.

MESRS. EDITORS:—In your columns of this morning you call upon me to become a candidate for Congress, I thank them for their kind and complimentary notice, and assure them that if I should be the choice of the party, that I will enter into the canvass with such zeal as to convince them that I know no such words as "fail."

JNO. O. HARRISON.

Jeffersonville Railroad Completed.

We learn that the last rail on the Jeffersonville and Columbus Railroad was laid last evening, and the cars will make their first trip to Columbus to-day, leaving the Depot in Jeffersonville at 7 o'clock this morning.

The Democratic Flag.

All's well! Our flag's unfurled!

Our Country's cause against THE WORLD!

The world's eyes are on us—look on us!

Southern rebels dare not stand against us!

They'll tremble when they see us
